

Clowning around... for the day!!!

Just before the stroke of midnight Sneezy the Clown and Mr.Hempel in their first dialogue co-ordinate plans for his wife's  Birthday. Earlier that evening Mr. Hempel had read Sneezy the clown's ad in The Canadian Champion.

Mr. Hempel asked Sneezy to meet his wife at the Go Station the next morning August 19 for the 6:50 A.M. Train to Toronto. Sneezy would be Marsha Hempel's executive assistant for the day. Her primary duty was to insure that everyone around her participated in the celebration of Marsha's Birthday!

Shocked Go Train commuters were invited by Sneezy to participate in the Party. Sneezy clowning around with all commuters lucky enough to be on her car. She orchestrated a rounding edition of "Happy Birthday ", fabulous balloon hats and creatures galore cleverly made by Sneezy. Commuters stayed wide awake this morning! Opportune photo-ops insured Marsha was the center of attention wherever she went. Immediately after getting off the Go Train at Union station, Martha whispered to Sneezy " from now on no more telling my age". Sneezy smiled!

Through Union Station, up Bay Street and entering Marsha's offices in the Scotia Plaza, people were amazed by her newest employee. Marsha is a Human Resources Manager at a prominent Toronto Law Firm.

Sneezy did her best to impress everyone with her humour, clown antics and balloon tricks. Staff were very enthusiastic, and all wanted to see the newest member of the team!

"I had to fire her" Marsha stated. "There is serious business to be conducted and all Sneezy wants to do is Clown around!" Marsha felt guilty about having to let Sneezy go, especially after being told she had been put on the VIP list for the Cirque du Soleil.

When Marsha was asked if she enjoyed her surprise party, she said that "it was the longest Go train ride I have ever taken; it was very embarrassing, but absolutely fabulous fun! Sneezy made my day a very special one and I highly recommend her to future employers!"

(Written by Mr. Hempel)

Entertainment for all ages & events

(905) 878-3684

SNEEZY
THE CLOWN
sneezy@stn.net

